

Genting Highlands Tour

Day 1) Malaysia Arrival & night tour.

Arrive at Kuala Lumpur Airport. Welcome to Malaysia. Transfer to Hotel. Start your evening journey to unforgettable China Town and Dataran Merdeka. China Town has a bustling market serving as a bargain hunter's paradise and certainly an eye-opening experience for tourists. Dataran Merdeka which means Independence Square. The buildings around the Dataran Merdeka, Kuala Lumpur mostly bear the syncretic stamp of the British Empire's English/Indian roots, with an abundance of Mughal-style domes blended with fancy British.

Before we proceed to KL Tower, you will visit the Cocoa Boutique, where you can try local chocolates and cookies. Later you will stop at Petronas Twin Towers, tallest twin towers in the world for a photo-stop. Then continue your evening with a magnificent sunset view from the KL Tower Observation Deck at the height of 276 meters. It will give you a birds-eye view of Petronas Twin tower and the entire glistening city center. This is the most amazing and memorable sunset experience in Kuala Lumpur! (Overnight stay)

Day 2) Genting Highland Tour with cable car ride.

Proceed for your day trip to Genting Highlands. En-route photo-stop at Batu Caves, where you see a 42.7-meter tall statue of Lord Murugan, After the photo-stop, proceed to Genting Highland which will take you about an hour drive before you reach to the Genting cable car station. Enjoy the ride of which is approximate 3.0 km long that will transport you away from 35°C heat to a cooling 20°C climate of the Genting Highlands.

Once reached the upper Cable car station, proceed to First World Plaza & Sky Avenue, the new concept of a shopping mall with various cuisine outlets. Malaysian Food Street gathers the country's most famous hawker delights, giving visitors the opportunity to eat their way across Malaysia in one sitting. Other than eating and drinking, Sky Avenue has crafted an entire lifestyle experience to keep visitors engaged at the mall. Top of the list is shopping, with almost 100 brands running the gamut from High Street to luxury for those who are brand conscious.

Genting Highland is also well known as a small version of Las Vegas. You may try your luck here. Before you leave, do take a look at the lobby of one of the biggest hotel in the world, First World Hotel which has a whopping nearly 8000 rooms where the main reception area resembles a small airport departure hall.

An option you may visit is Chin Swee Temple. Schedule 02 hours before pick up time, on return way to lower cable car station, make an hour stop here (Chin Swee Station). This temple (originally a cave temple) that houses the black-faced Chin Swee altar, hidden slightly deep inside a rocky chamber. You may also explore the iconic nine-story pagoda lit by lamps, Sky Terrace, 'Ten Chambers of Hell' and finally, a giant 15 meter high Buddha statue wedged between the jungle canopy across the hill. (Overnight stay)

Day 3) Sunway Lagoon Theme Park

Sunway Lagoon Theme park is a Theme park for everyone, whether you are young or old, a thrill seeker or a beach bum. With over 80 attractions spread across 88 acres, beat the tropical heat in the Waters of Africa at Sunway Lagoon. A man-made Surf Beach right here in the city where holidaymakers from all around the world come for a fun-filled day in the sun. You don't have to be soaking wet to have fun.
